10 (d) Certain Programs Exempt. – The requirements of this section do not apply to 11 professional, graduate, departmental, or certificate programs at constituent institutions that have 12 specific accreditation requirements or best practices, including law, pharmacy, engineering, and
13 other similar educational programs, as identified by the Board of Governors of The University
14 of North Carolina.

15 (e) Cause of Action. – A constituent institution may bring a civil action, as follows:

16 (1) Against any person who makes a false statement to the accrediting agency of 17 the constituent institution, if all of the following criteria are met:

18 a. The statement, if true, would mean the constituent institution is out of 19 compliance with its accreditation standards.

20 b. The person made the statement with knowledge that the statement was 21 false or with reckless disregard as to whether it was false.

22 c. The accrediting agency conducted a review of the constituent
23 institution as a proximate result of the statement.

24 d. The review caused the constituent institution to incur costs.

25 (2) A constituent institution that prevails on a cause of action initiated pursuant 26 to this subsection shall be entitled to the following:

27 a. Costs related to the review conducted by the accrediting agency,
28 including for the following:

29 1. Additional hours worked by university personnel.

30 2. Contracted services, including outside legal counsel.

PART III. ACCREDITATION STUDY

SECTION 3. The Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina shall establish a Commission to study alternatives to the current process by which institutions of higher education are accredited and shall invite stakeholders, including stakeholders from other states, to participate. The Board of Governors shall provide an interim report on the Commission's efforts to recruit stakeholders to participate to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee by September 1, 2023. The Commission shall report any findings it develops to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee by September 1, 2024.

PART IV. CONFORMING CHANGES

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 90-631(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) A massage and bodywork therapy program operated by a North Carolina community college that is accredited by ~~the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools~~ a regional accrediting agency, as defined in G.S. 115D-6.2, is exempt from the approval process, licensure process, or both, established by the Board. The college shall certify annually to the Board that the program meets or exceeds the minimum standards for curriculum, faculty, and learning resources established by the Board. Students who complete the program shall qualify for licenses from the Board as if the program were approved, licensed, or both, by the Board."

SECTION 4.(b) G.S. 93A-4(a2) reads as rewritten:

"(a2) A certified real estate education provider shall pay a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) per licensee to the Commission for each licensee completing a postlicensing education course conducted by the school, provided that these fees shall not be charged to a community college, junior college, college, or university located in this State and accredited by ~~the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools~~ a regional accrediting agency, as defined in G.S. 115D-6.2 and G.S. 116-11.4, respectively."

SECTION 4.(c) G.S. 93A-38.5(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The Commission may establish a nonrefundable course application fee to be charged to private real estate education providers for the review and approval of a proposed continuing education course. The fee shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125.00) per course. The Commission may charge the private real estate education providers of an approved course a nonrefundable fee not to exceed seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for the annual renewal of course approval.

A private real estate education provider shall pay a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) per licensee to the Commission for each licensee completing an approved continuing education course conducted by the sponsor.
